Today's Readings Summaries

A summary theme for the appointed readings today (1/22) is: The Lord Manifests His Glory through His Office of the Holy Ministry. By His coming in the flesh and by His preaching and miracles, the Lord Jesus shines the light of His Gospel upon “the people who walked in darkness” and “who dwelt in a land of deep darkness” (Is. 9:2). He has also “multiplied the nation” and “increased its joy” (Is. 9:3) by calling disciples to Himself from the ends of the earth. For this purpose, He calls Peter and Andrew, with James and John, to follow Him and be “fishers of men” (Matt. 4:19). As Jesus did, they also go forth “proclaiming the gospel of the kingdom and healing every disease and every affliction among the people” (Matt. 4:23). They preach the foolishness of the cross of Christ as the very power and wisdom of God. This word and preaching of the cross divides “those who are perishing” from “us who are being saved” (1 Cor. 1:18), but it unites the Church, the one Body of Christ, “in the same mind and the same judgment” (1 Cor. 1:10).

Can You Leave a Legacy for GSLC?

YES YOU CAN! The GSLC Endowment Fund was established just for you. You have an opportunity to leave a legacy of continuing financial support of church ministries designated for missions, education and community focus. The earnings on your financial gift, which may be cash or other assets, are used to maintain scholarships, mission outreach to our community, other geographic areas and service including worship and physical appearance enhancements. Because only the interest earnings are distributed for actual use, each gift will make a lasting contribution to God's kingdom through the life of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. YES YOU CAN leave a legacy for GSLC. Talk to your Endowment Committee members Mark de la Motte, Christin Lucero, Louise Rickey or Patsy Geiger.
