Sunday Worship Next Week at GSLC

Next Sunday (1/15/17) is the 2nd Sunday after the Epiphany. The Scripture readings for the service are: Isaiah 49:1-7; Psalm 40; 1 Corinthians 1:1-9 and John 1:29-42a. The Praise Band will provide music at the 9:00 a.m. service. The organist will provide music at the 11:00 a.m. service.

Thank You

Thank you to Greg Goodwin and Charlie Jahn. Greg preached last Sunday (1/1) and Charlie lead in worship. Our congregation is blessed to have people who are willing to share their gifts with us. Their leadership last Sunday was a blessing to all of us, including me! THANK YOU! (Pastor Ron)

LENT

Calendar Item

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 1. Pray for our upcoming midweek lent services and our Sunday services. Prepare for our Easter celebrations on April 16. Begin praying for people you can invite to our Lent/Easter events.

Financial Peace University

Jim Knapp will lead another class of Financial Peace University beginning this Thursday, January 12. This is a 9-week course that teaches God’s way of handling money. To register, go to Good Shepherd’s website www.gslct.org and click on the Financial Peace University link and purchase your class materials for $93.00. If you have any questions, contact Jim Knapp at 209-380-0528.

January Prayer Walking Idea

Take time this month to drive by the city service buildings (City Hall, Public Safety Center, and fire stations). Pause at the separate places and pray for our city servants, including our elected officials. Pray for their leadership and service. Pray for their families. Pray for any city needs we have in our area. Thank you for praying.

Council Input

The Church Council would appreciate any input you have for them regarding needs in our congregation or suggestions for our congregation. You may use the Yellow Form for today’s worship service to relay your input to them. Thank you.

Today’s Readings Summaries

A summary theme for the appointed readings today (1/8) is: The Lord God Is Manifested in the Incarnate Son. Epiphany centers in the visit of the Magi from the East. In that respect, it is a “thirteenth day” of Christmas, and yet, it also marks the beginning of a new liturgical season. Where Christmas has focused on the incarnation of our Lord, that is, on God becoming flesh, the season of Epiphany emphasizes the manifestation or self-revelation of God in that same flesh of Christ. For the Lord Himself has entered our darkness and rises upon us with the brightness of His true light (Is. 60:1–2). He does so chiefly by His Word of the Gospel, which He causes to be preached within His Church on earth, not only to the Jews but also to the Gentiles (Eph. 3:8–10). As the Magi were guided by the promises of Holy Scripture to find and worship the Christ Child with His mother in the house (Matt. 2:5–11), so does He call disciples from all nations by the preaching of His Word, to find and worship Him within His Church (Is. 60:3–6).

Outreach Ministries

The Outreach team met on Jan. 3.

- Valerie Stonebreaker will be home summer 2017 for two months. Depending on the dates, she may be able to participate in VBS and the Alaska Mission Trip.
- The next time we order name tags for Sunday worship, we need to order different ones that are easier to remove from the backing.
- The LHM booklets in the Information Center will be replenished.
- The team will further develop new member mentors this year.
- The Christmas parade popcorn and hot chocolate booth was a success. A report will be printed in News & Notes. It will be offered again in 2017.
- The Christmas business cards and outside banner were helpful for advertising our Christmas events. We distributed about 400 of the 500 business cards.
- The team's Big Rock with the Confirmation age youth was a success. The youth collected coats for Westside Ministries' Coat Drive and helped distribute them on 12/14.
- The Alaska Mission trip with Thirst Ministries will be 7/29-8/5. Currently we have 10 people. We have room for more.
- A banner and business cards will be ordered for Lent/Easter. The business cards will be available for distribution in March.
- The team is working on printing a new church information brochure.

- Mike Burnam, a missionary and brother to Becky Bailey, will be at our church on April 23 to provide an overview of his ministry. Next meeting: Feb. 7, 4:45. (Becky Bailey, Margaret Routt, Judy Rexin, and Pastor Ron)
