Sunday Worship Next Week at GSLC

Next Sunday (11/22) is the Last Sunday of the Church Year. The appointed Scripture readings for that day are: Isaiah 51:4-6; Psalm 93; Jude 20-25; John 18:33-37. The Praise Band will lead our contemporary worship at the 9:00 a.m. service. The organist will lead our classic worship at the 11:00 a.m. service. It is also RESPONSE SUNDAY. Please bring your Faith Promise Card for 2016. It was mailed to each family several weeks ago. We will have extra copies available on Sunday. Konrad Hack will be with us during both services to tell his story as a young boy during WWII. Bring a friend.

Resurrection Workshop

It is happening on Nov. 21, 8:00 – 11:30 a.m. The “Resurrection Workshop” will be offered for adults of all ages as we all prepare for what happens before and after our resurrection to eternal life. Presentations by different individuals will be given on each of these subjects: your medical care at life’s end; your burial; your will/trust; your funeral/memorial service; and your vital records. Your loved ones will be extremely grateful for your preparations in all the above areas. Sign-up on the yellow form.

Transforming Churches Network (TCN)

Today (11/15) we focus on a reading from John 4:27-42. Friendship through Sharing is the final theme as we conclude our 10 week emphasis on “Movin’ Out – With God’s Love!”

Thanksgiving Day Worship

A worship service to offer our gratitude to God for all He has given our country, these United States of America, will be offered on Thanksgiving Day at 9:00 a.m. Bring a neighbor and join our worship.

Our Friends

Back in September we asked people to identify one unchurched friend or one person who is not attending worship. The goal was to pray for them regularly throughout the 10 week TCN season. We continue to pray for them and ask God to bless them with His love and grace. Thank you for praying!

Today's Readings Summaries

A summary theme for the appointed readings today (11/15) is: The Crucified and Risen Body of Christ Jesus Is the True Temple of God. Despite its “wonderful stones” and “great buildings,” the Jerusalem temple would be torn down, not one stone left upon another; just as this present world and its kingdoms will come to an end (Mark 13:1–8). But that temple pointed beyond itself to Christ, to His sacrifice upon the Cross, and to the resurrection of His Body as the true Temple of God. In the midst of sin and death, by the proclamation of the Gospel, He now gathers disciples into His Body, wherein “the one who endures to the end will be saved” (Mark 13:10–13). For He is “a great priest over the house of God,” who “will remember their sins and their lawless deeds no more.” By the pure water of His Baptism, they “draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith,” and by His flesh and blood they enter the Holy of Holies (Heb. 10:17–22). Thus are His people delivered, “everyone whose name shall be found written in the book.” For by the wisdom of His Gospel, He turns “many to righteousness,” so that “many of those who sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake” to everlasting life (Dan 12:1–3).
