Sunday Worship Next Week at GSLC

Next Sunday (10/2) is the 20th Sunday after Pentecost. The appointed Scripture readings for the day are: Habakkuk 1:1-4; 2:1-4; Psalm 62; 2 Timothy 1:1-14; Luke 17:1-10. The Praise Band will lead the music at 9:00 a.m. The organist will lead the music at 11:00 a.m. The Chancel Choir will be singing at the 11:00 a.m. service. Holy Communion will be offered at both services.

Church Picnic

It is here! The picnic is today at 1:00 p.m. after the late service. Head over to Crane Park (corner of Canal & Colorado). We will be gathering at the large picnic area, which is on the northwest side of the park. Food and drinks are provided. A freewill offering will be taken to offset food costs. Seating is available in that area. Adult and children activities will be provided.

Thank You

John & Danna Shipman are somewhat new to our congregation, but they have plunged into ministry. Today, John is the main cook for our picnic, as he has been for many other meals. Danna is active in many areas of ministry, including as a weekly office assistant in assembling News & Notes. I thank John & Danna for their involvement in ministry. It is a pleasure to serve with both of them. (Pastor Ron)

Today's Readings Summaries

A summary theme for the appointed readings today (9/25) is: Our Help Is Not in Worldly Riches. "The poor man died and was carried by the angels to Abraham's side," and "the rich man also died and was buried" (Luke 16:22). The poor man Lazarus, who knew many bad things on earth, began to be comforted forever, whereas the rich man, after a lifetime of good things, began to be "in anguish" (Luke 16:25). Therefore, "woe to those who are at ease in Zion" (Amos 6:1), for "the revelry of those who stretch themselves out shall pass away" (Amos 6:7). The wealthy are urged "not to be haughty, nor to set their hopes on the uncertainty of riches," but "to do good, to be rich in good works, to be generous and ready to share" (1 Tim. 6:17-18). Covetous desire for what God has not given is idolatry and "a root of all kinds of evils" (1 Tim. 6:10). Contentment belongs to faith, by which the Christian has "great gain" in godliness (1 Tim. 6:6).

Betty Bailey Thank You

I wish to extend my sincere thanks to all who have called, written or visited me during my hospital stay and recuperation at home. They were all deeply appreciated. I am so blessed to have you as my friends.

Sincerely,
Betty Bailey
