Sunday Worship Next Week at GSLC

Next Sunday (11/6) is All Saints' Sunday. It is also the first Sunday in our Stewardship emphasis, The Joy of Generosity. The three Sunday themes are: The Joy of Receiving God's Blessings (11/6); the Joy of Managing God's Blessings (11/13); and the Joy of Sharing God's Blessings (11/20). The appointed Scripture readings for the first Sunday are: 1 Chronicles 29:10-14; Psalm 103; 1 Corinthians 4:1-7; Luke 19:1-10. The Praise Band will lead the music at 9:00 a.m. The organist and Chancel Choir will lead the music at 11:00 a.m.

Oktoberfest

Tonight at 5:00 p.m. we will gather in the Social Hall for a fun time of food, drink, games, music and just hanging out. Bring your kids (no matter what their ages), your friends, and anyone else. Baskets for a freewill offering will be available to offset the cost of the food. Please let our visitors know that we do not expect them to donate. God is good!

Thank You

I would like to thank Troy de la Motte for ALL he does in serving the Lord through our church. He heads up the Fellowship Ministry Team, including organizing, cooking, and serving at many of our fellowship events. When no one signs up for the fellowship times on a Sunday, he (and Jen) make sure we have donuts. Many Sundays he has been the one to clean up after the fellowship time on Sundays. He has been a tremendous support and leader for ministry to our youth and children. He has helped in repairing and maintain our facilities. He extends a caring heart and hand, along with a listening ear to many people. I thank Troy for the godly man he is and the devotion he exhibits. (Pastor Ron)

Experiencing the Joy of Generosity

This week marks the beginning of a three week stewardship emphasis titled "Experiencing the Joy of Generosity. This will be an exciting and beneficial three weeks of sermon messages and Bible studies. We believe this program will be a blessing to those who already are experiencing the joy of being generous with the gifts God has given to them, and we hope and pray that this effort will help many more experience the joy that comes from giving faithfully and generously.

When we give to God through giving to our church and others, we experience one of the true joys of being Christians. Jesus said, "It is more blessed to give than to receive" (Acts 20:35). As we respond to God's love for us by giving back to Him part of what He's given to us, He reacts by giving us even more. Although we don't give so that we will receive God's blessings, God's Word promises us that, when we give faithfully and willingly, we will receive an abundance of spiritual blessings and, for some, material blessings as well.

Our pursuit for fulfillment and joy culminates in the discovery that we receive those things when, by God's grace, we respond with eagerness to God's directive to give.

We hope and pray that the emphasis "Experiencing the Joy of Generosity" will be a blessing to you and your family.

Today's Readings Summaries

A summary theme for the appointed readings today (10/30) is: The Son of God Has Set Us Free from Sin and Death by His Grace. "Wisdom is justified by her deeds" (Matt. 11:19), and the true Wisdom of God, Christ Jesus, the incarnate Son, justifies us by His deeds. He prepares His way by the preaching of repentance, but He has suffered the violence of the Law and voluntarily handed Himself over to violent men, that we might eat and drink with Him in His kingdom and "remain in the house forever" (John 8:35). For He is "a friend of tax collectors and sinners" (Matt. 11:19), and He has rescued us by His grace from the slavery of sin and death. By the proclamation of His eternal Gospel "to those who dwell on earth, to every nation and tribe and language and people" (Rev. 14:6), "the righteousness of God has been manifested apart from the law" (Rom. 3:21), "that he might be just and the justifier of the one who has faith in Jesus" (Rom. 3:26). And by hearing the Gospel of Christ Jesus, "whom God put forward as a propitiation by his blood, to be received by faith" (Rom. 3:25), "you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free" (John 8:32).

Lit 'n' Latte

Our next novel is by Jennifer Chiaverini, Mrs. Lincoln's Dressmaker (2013). It's the account of the friendship that developed between Mary Todd Lincoln and her seamstress, Elizabeth "Lizzie" Beckley, a former slave who gained her professional reputation in Washington, DC, by outfitting the city's elite. If you like to sew or love historical fiction, you may enjoy this. We'll meet on Wednesday, November 9, 2016 at 6:30 pm at our neighborhood Starbucks.

Elders

The Elders met on Oct. 17, 2016. Here is a summary of the meeting:

- Care ministry needs were discussed. Cards were sent to several people.
- The Pastor discussed upgrades that are being made to the First Aid closet.
- The Pastor introduced the need to choose a Bible translation for buying new Bibles in the future since the NIV1984 is no longer available.
- The Elder budget was reviewed. There are no issues or concerns.
- The need for a worship leader on Jan. 1 was discussed.
- Acolytes will now be assigned to a specific Elder team, serving every month on a specific Sunday.
- The Elders had a good time playing mush ball with the youth on Oct. 2. This was the Elder's participation in the Big Rock. They had a good discussion with them over dinner: interest in usher training, being reminded by texts when they are to serve as ushers, suggestions for worship and music in worship. The elders want the mush ball event to be an annual event.
- The Elders continue to follow a process for inviting new people to serve as an elder and to express gratitude for people who serve as elders.
- The elders were assigned to the special worship services at Thanksgiving, Advent and Christmas.

The next Elder's meeting is scheduled for Nov. 15, 6:30 p.m. (Jim Bollinger, Ken Fitzgerald, Victor Martino, Derek Schell, Jim Smith, Rick Kaepernick, LeRoy Gonzales, Ken Lambert and Pastor Ron)

Seminary Student Thank You

Dear Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, Happy October! Hope things are well in your congregation! Thank you again for your continued support of me. Seminary is going very well. My Hebrew class is really great. My professor, Dr. Egger, is really good at teaching Elementary Hebrew. We've had 3 exams so far and have scored very well on all of them. I have a fourth this Friday 10/14 and hope it goes as well. My Intramural team has lost all but 2 games, which is unfortunate, but they're still very fun. It's really nice having the opportunity to blow off some steam twice a week after classes. I got a job with "Environmental Services" (Maintenance), which has amounted to a lot of window washing. I work with a classmate from Hebrew and it's a lot of fun working with him. We've been allowed (recently) to do other jobs, and I'm confident I'll enjoy the job. The pay doesn't hurt either.

With many thanks,
Brandon Witty*

(*Brandon Witty is a student at Concordia Seminary in St. Louis. Our congregation provides some financial support for his education.)
