Sunday Worship Next Week at GSLC

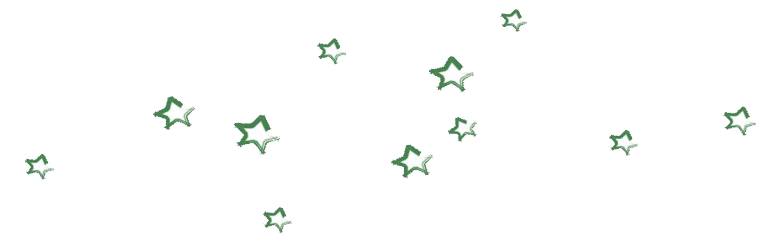

Next Sunday (1/19) is the 2nd Sunday after the Epiphany. The appointed Scripture readings for that day are: Isaiah 49:1-7; 1 Corinthians 1:1-9; John 1:29-42a. The Praise Band will lead our music at the 9:00 a.m. service. The organist will lead our music at the 11:00 a.m. service. Holy Communion will be offered at both services.

Faith Basics

An overview of the basic teachings of Scripture will be presented for people who want to know more about the Bible or want to review. These classes will prepare a person for membership at Good Shepherd, if they decide to join. The classes are offered on Thursday evenings beginning January 16 at 7:00 p.m. Check out the yellow form insert for more details and to sign up.

Lent Worship

Preparations are being made to offer a worship service on Wednesdays around noontime during Lent. A contemporary service will be offered in the evening. More details will be given later.

Lit 'n' Latte Special Event

What is better than a new book? How about a new book, The Fragile World (coming November 2014), and discussion with its author? Paula Treick DeBoard, author of The Mourning Hours (our September 2013 book selection), will be our guest speaker for a special Lit 'n' Latte event on Wednesday, January 15 at the church. Mark your calendars, and stay tuned as event details unfold.

A New Year in Kenya

The familiar hymn "Count your Blessings" encourages us to look back and remember how God has blessed us in the past year. New Years is not just about look forward with resolutions. It is also about looking back and remembering with thanksgiving the many ways God has blessed us. The January newsletter of Capstone Ministries does this as well. Take a few minutes today and read about all the ways God worked through the Capstone staff in Kenya in 2013. Go to <http://capstoneministries.org/wp-content/uploads/2014/01/January-2014.pdf> or get your hard copy from the table in the Social Hall. God bless, Dan and Patty Schmelzer

Today's Reading Summaries

A summary theme for the appointed readings today (1/12) is: The Holy Triune God Is Manifested and Reveals Himself to Us in Holy Baptism. The Baptism of our Lord is an "epiphany" of the one true God in the flesh and blood of Jesus. He is the chosen servant of the Lord, anointed with the Spirit for the rescue of God's people and to "bring forth justice to the nations" (Is. 42:1). Thus, He makes all things new, and He is given "as a covenant for the people, a light for the nations" (Is. 42:6). In the waters of the Jordan, He takes His place with sinners and takes all the sins of the world upon Himself. He undergoes the Baptism of repentance in order to "fulfill all righteousness" for us (Matt. 3:15). He submits Himself to the curse of sin and death in order to redeem us. We are baptized with a Baptism like His, thereby dying and rising with Him, so that "we will also live with him" (Rom. 6:8). Indeed, all of us who are baptized into Christ Jesus are anointed with His Spirit and named by His Father as beloved and well-pleasing sons and daughters.
